

The SHARE Foundation:

Building a New El Salvador Today invites to you to commemorate the lives and legacy of:

The Four U.S. Churchwomen, Dorothy Kazel, Maura Clarke, Ita Ford and Jean Donovan, assassinated in El Salvador thirty years ago, by participating in a delegation to El Salvador focused on women's justice issues both in El Salvador and around the world

Delegates will have the opportunity to:

- Attend events relating to the 30th Anniversary Commemoration of the four U.S. Churchwomen
- Participate in a Forum on issues affecting women in El Salvador and in the United States
- Join an International Encounter of Women Religious and Christian Base Communities

We will also:

- Meet with Salvadoran women parliamentarians
- Visit women's projects in rural communities
- Meet with and hear speakers on current day El Salvador issues
- Visit the historical martyr sites in El Salvador including the location where the four churchwomen were assassinated, the home of Archbishop Romero and the University of Central America (UCA) where the Jesuits martyrs lived and died

In the spirit of Maura, Ita, Dorothy and Jean, we invite you to come and be in solidarity with our Salvadoran sisters and brothers

November 29- December 6, 2010

Cost: $850 plus airfare
(scholarships and group discounts available)

This event is co-sponsored by Pax Christi USA and the Leadership Conference of Women Religious (LCWR)
